POSITION DESCRIPTION

A Corporation Examiner IV (Supervisor) either (1) supervises a group of examiners engaged in field examinations, or (2) assists in the organization, planning and direction of a regional examination program.

EXAMINATION INFORMATION

QUALIFICATIONS APPRAISAL PANEL
WIEGHTED 100%

This examination will consist of a qualifications appraisal panel interview only. The interview will include a number of predetermined job-related questions relating to areas shown under the scope. In order to obtain a position on the eligible list, a minimum rating of 70.00% must be attained.

COMPETITORS WHO DO NOT APPEAR FOR THE INTERVIEW WILL BE DISQUALIFIED.

If conditions warrant, the examination may utilize an evaluation of each competitor's experience and education compared to a standard developed from the class specification. For this reason, it is especially important that each candidate take special care in accurately and completely filling out his or her application.

SCOPE

In addition to evaluating the competitor's relative abilities as demonstrated by quality and breadth of experience, emphasis in the qualifications appraisal interview will be on measuring competitively, relative to job demands each competitor's:

A. Knowledge of:

1. General and specialize accounting and auditing principles and procedures.
2. Laws, policies, rules and regulations administered by the Department of Corporations.
3. Financial organization and practices of organizations subject to regulation by the Department of Corporations.
4. Federal rules and regulations governing the issue and sale of corporate securities.
5. Business law.
6. Administrative practices and procedures.
7. Principles and techniques of personnel management and supervision.
8. The Department's Equal Employment Opportunity Program objectives.
9. Manager's role in the Equal Employment Opportunity Program and the processes available to meet equal employment opportunity.

SCOPE (Continued)

B. Ability to:

1. Administer procedures and program activities.
2. Gather, organize, summarize and interpret financial data.
3. Analyze situations accurately and adopt an effective course of action.
4. Prepare reports.
5. Establish and maintain cooperative relations with those contacted in the work.
6. Speak effectively.
7. Devise procedures and program activities.
8. Plan, organize and direct the work of others.
9. Effectively contribute to the Department's Equal Employment Opportunity objectives.

ELIGIBLE LIST INFORMATION

A departmental promotional eligible list will be established for the Department of Corporations. The resulting list will be in effect for a minimum of 24 months. It will be abolished after 24 months, or the completion of a subsequent examination, whichever comes first.

VETERANS' PREFERENCE AND CAREER CREDITS

Veterans' Preference Points and career credits are not granted in promotional examinations.

GENERAL INFORMATION

Applications are available at the State Personnel Board offices, local offices of the Employment Development Department, the Department of Corporations and the State Personnel Board's web site @ <http://www.spb.ca.gov>.

If you meet the requirements stated in this bulletin, you may take this examination, which is competitive. Possession of the entrance requirement(s) does not assure placement on the employment list. All candidates who pass the examination will be ranked according to their scores.

Examination Locations: If this examination requires a written test and/or qualifications appraisal interview, it will be scheduled throughout the State as the number of candidates and conditions warrant. Ordinarily, examinations are scheduled in Sacramento, San Francisco and Los Angeles. However, locations of interviews may be limited or extended as conditions warrant.

Eligible Lists: Eligible lists established by competitive examination, regardless of date, must be used in the following order: 1) sub-divisional promotional; 2) departmental promotional; 3) multi-departmental promotional; 4) service-wide promotional; 5) departmental open; and 6) open eligible list. When there are two lists of the same kind, the older must be used first. Eligible lists will expire in one to four years unless otherwise stated on this bulletin. In the case of continuous testing examinations, names are merged into the appropriate lists in order of final test scores (except as modified by veterans preference credits) regardless of the date of the test and the resulting eligible lists will be used only to fill vacancies in the area shown on the bulletin.

Promotional Examinations Only: Competition is limited to employees who have a permanent civil service appointment with the testing department or must be: 1) a current or former legislative employee meeting the criteria defined in Government Code (GC) Section 18990; or 2) an exempt employee meeting the criteria defined in GC Section 18992 at the time their application is filed, in order to take the examination. Under certain circumstances other employees may be allowed to compete under provisions of Rules 234, 235, and 235.2. State Personnel Board Rules 233, 234, 235, 235.2 and 237 contain provisions regarding civil service status and eligibility for promotional examinations. These rules may be reviewed at departmental personnel offices or at the Information Counter at the State Personnel Board.

General Qualifications: Candidates must possess essential personal qualifications including integrity, initiative, dependability, good judgment, and ability to work cooperatively with others; and a state of health consistent with the ability to perform the assigned duties of the class. A medical examination may be required. In open examinations, investigation may be made of employment records and personal history and fingerprinting may be required.

Rule 235: An employee who has moved from one agency without a break in service may participate in the promotional examination for the agency from which that employee moved while employed under probationary status, limited-term appointment, or temporary authorization (TAU). If a promotional examination is being held for an agency to establish an employment list for an administrative, professional or technical class, an employee of another agency who is otherwise eligible, may participate if that employee had promotional eligibility in the designated agency at the time within the three years of the date of examination and has had no subsequent break in state service by resignation, non-disability retirement or removal for cause.

Veterans' Preference: California law allows the granting of veterans' preference points in Open entrance examinations and Open-Non-promotional examinations. Veterans' Preference Points will be added to the final score of all competitors who are successful in this examination and qualify for and have requested these points. Credit in open entrance examinations is granted as follows: 10 points for veterans, widows and widowers of veterans, and spouses of 100%-disabled veterans; and 15 points for disabled veterans. Credit in open-non-promotional examinations is granted as follows: 5 points for veterans and 10 points for disabled veterans. Directions for applying for veterans' preference points are on the Veterans Preference Application (Form 1093), which is available from the State Personnel Board offices, written test proctors, and the Department of Veterans Affairs, P. O. Box 942895, Sacramento, CA 94295-0001.

Career Credits: In open non-promotional examinations, career credits are granted to: 1) State employees with permanent civil service status, 2) full-time employees of the State who are exempt from State civil service pursuant to the provisions of Section 4 of Article VII of the California Constitution, and who meet all qualification requirements specified by the Board and have 12 consecutive months of service in an exempt position, and 3) individuals who have served one full year in, or are graduates of, the California Conservation Corps (eligibility shall expire 24 months after graduation from the California Conservation Corps). Three points are added to the final test score of those candidates who meet the above criteria, and who are successful in the examination. Such examinations cannot be for managerial positions described in Government Code Section 3513. Competitors not currently employed in State civil service who have mandatory reinstatement rights may also be eligible for career credits, but they must explain their civil service status in the appropriate section of the application Form 100-678. (Section 4 of Article VII of the California Constitution is posted at the State Personnel Board, 801 Capitol Mall, Sacramento, CA 94244-2010).
